KEEP THIS ON THE FRIDGE!

Being a team member means that everyone's contribution is important and valued both on and off stage. There are no show stars.

Everyone's contribution is vital to the show!

To demonstrate your commitment to the team, we ask you to:

- Attend all rehearsals as required.
- Behave according to our Code of Conduct.
- Focus fully when at rehearsals.
- Stay inside the venue until signed out.
- Make yourself available for all performances.

We will be working toward the production for Frozen Jr and learning musical theatre skills!

You should wear comfy clothes and shoes (no thongs or slides) to JAM and bring your FROZEN JR libretto, an eraser, lead pencil and water bottle with you EVERY WEEK (please place your name on everything).

You should practice at home between JAM sessions with the downloaded music tracks (supply a USB in Week 1 if you are not confident to download the tracks).

JUNIOR CODE OF CONDUCT

Members of JAM agree to:

1. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of other members.
2. Be fair, considerate and honest.
3. Be friendly and polite to everyone.
4. Not use any "bullying" behaviour.

FOR PARENTS/CAREGIVERS:

For your child's safety we ask JAMmers are signed in and out of rehearsals by parents/caregivers and enter the School of Arts via the Berry Street door. Unless a parent has a specific role, they may not be in the rehearsal space.

AMTC Child Safety Policy requires all of the team working with your children to have current Working With Children Checks (WWCC). There are opportunities for JAM to use parent helpers. You can express your interest via an on-line form on the AMTC/JAM website. You will need to organise a VOLUNTEER WWCC which is free to obtain.

We realise that there will be times when people cannot attend rehearsals but these should be kept to a minimum. We will ask you to tell us about absences you already know about on your enrolment form and by email as dates arise.

To allow the Creative Team to make the best use of rehearsal time please arrive promptly. Question or discussion before or after rehearsal should be directed to Hayley Millsom or Wendy Bilbey.
