

At JAM we practice the following behaviours

1. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of other members
 - The contribution of all JAM participants has equal value.
 - we are a team!! -No one person can make the show on their own.
2. Be fair, considerate and honest
 - we don't take things that don't belong to us
 - we may have to be patient and wait our turn at times
 - we pay attention when asked
 - we listen when leaders are speaking
 - we follow instructions when given
 - We don't damage things
3. Be friendly and polite to everyone
 - we are kind to each other and we use good manners
 - it's okay to tell a team leader if you are feeling sad or worried.
 - it's okay to ask for help and we help each other when it's needed
4. No "bullying" behaviour
 - we encourage each other
 - we express emotions in a kind way
 - we don't say nasty things to, or about, each other
 - we speak up if we see unkindness

At JAM we practice the following behaviours

1. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of other members
 - The contribution of all JAM participants has equal value.
 - we are a team!! -No one person can make the show on their own.
2. Be fair, considerate and honest
 - we don't take things that don't belong to us
 - we may have to be patient and wait our turn at times
 - we pay attention when asked
 - we listen when leaders are speaking
 - we follow instructions when given
 - We don't damage things
3. Be friendly and polite to everyone
 - we are kind to each other and we use good manners
 - it's okay to tell a team leader if you are feeling sad or worried.
 - it's okay to ask for help and we help each other when it's needed
4. No "bullying" behaviour
 - we encourage each other
 - we express emotions in a kind way
 - we don't say nasty things to, or about, each other
 - we speak up if we see unkindness